CSA supports LDC in its investment in the buyout of Ministry of Cake from listed food producer Greencore plc
Carlton Strategy Advisors has successfully supported LDC providing strategic business and market analysis in connection with LDC's investment in the management buyout of Ministry of Cake from Greencore plc.

Headquartered in Taunton in Somerset, Ministry of Cake is a leading manufacturer of own-label cakes and gateaux, primarily for the foodservice market. The business produces more than two million slices of cake every week for its growing customer base that includes some of the leading names in the foodservice, catering and wholesale industries, such as Brake Brothers, 3663, Cafe Nero, Pizza Hut, Hard Rock Café, Makro and Booker.

The scope of CSA's analysis included Ministry of Cake strategy, direction and competitive positioning relative to other market participants.
